Argentina

Don Cristobal, Verdelho, Mendoza, 2008, 13%

Originally a grape rarely found outside of Madeira, but flourishing now in the Andean foothills. Fruity, floral, dry, but not too sharp. Refreshingly different in fact. btl £21.95

Australia

Tiddy Widdy Well, Colombard/Riesling/Sauvignon, 2007, 13%

This wine over delivers in every way, crisp & vibrant on the nose with a palate of fresh grapefruit, guava & mango. btl £16.95

Chile

Casa Silva, Viognier Reserve, Colchagua Valley, 2007, 14.5%

A really fine example of this cult variety with the characteristic peach & apricot aromas & flavours, the rich mouth feel & the off dry style. A perfectly balanced wine that can stand up to strong flavours, but wont over-power the dish. btl £23.95

France

Jean-Claude Chatelain, Pouilly Fumé AC, Loire, 2007, 12.5%

Sauvignon Blanc grapes, treated in this style of vinification, produce a pungent gun-flint nose with an elegant citrus fruit flavour & a herbaceous under tone. btl £27.95

Italy

Mezzacorona, Pinot Grigio, Trentino, 2008, 12.5%

Very clean, nicely balanced Pinot Grigio, with a gentle floral aroma, good medium weight in the mouth, and a refreshing finish. btl £20.95

New Zealand

Tinpot Hut, Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough, New Zealand, 2008 13%

Passion fruit & citrus nose with lovely depth & intensity. Classic Marlborough aromatics are leavened by an attractive mineral character & easy, fruit driven style. btl £25.00
